

Machine politics never received such terrible blows as in this spring's contests. Chicago had five candidates for mayor and the independent republican candidate received more votes than the regular nominee, and for no other reason than that his supporters were obnoxious to the people. Detroit, Cincinnati and hundreds of other cities, great and small, also furnish proof of the fact that the people are gradually awakening to the necessity of voting at the caucus and naming the best men for all places.

The attempt of the Detroit Tribune and other free silver papers to prove that many democrats who desired to vote the free silver ticket, by mistake, voted the national (gold) democratic ticket, is too ridiculous to be considered for a moment. Indeed, it occurs to us that members of the free silver party will resent being told that they were too ignorant to vote the ticket they desired to, especially as the vignettes used were the same as those used at the fall election. The fact is that thousands of democrats in Michigan and other states have come to realize that the cry for free coinage of silver is the greatest political humbug of the day. The next election will show a still smaller vote for the 50 cent dollar party.

THE TIMES naturally takes pride in the election of one of its staff as alderman in the second ward. A newspaper man is sure, if he is active, or has opinions and is fearless in expressing them, to lose some friends in his own party. This is true in this election, when some of the men who urged Mr. Dewey's nomination, worked and voted against him, yet he comes out with a vote equal to that of his party, running ahead of some candidates. His opponent was a man from one of the factories where he is popular and known as a man of good judgment. Mr. Hoenshell secured almost the solid prohibition vote, having been for years connected with that party, and with the 18 votes cast for the gold democrat candidate, Mr. Dewey has a majority of 35. It is seldom that a newspaper man wins, and we feel grateful to the friends who stood by and have sympathy for the republicans who opposed him to their own harm.

FOR A NOBLE CAUSE!

Owosso Citizens Are at Last Aroused.

Monument to the Soldiers of the Rebellion Soon to Be Dedicated.

Thirty-six years have passed since the noblest and best citizens of this republic went forward to put down the vilest evil that ever existed in the nation's life. Thirty-two years have passed since the remnant of the most wonderful armies of history returned in peace to their homes. Owosso has honored these men in all these years, but in no visible way have they paid tribute to those who have departed to another and better world. On the 31st of May it is proposed to dedicate to their memory a monument which will represent the love we have for these heroes. The Woman's Relief Corps, that band of brave and earnest women, who are relieving the distress of the veterans in these declining years of their lives, started a fund some years ago and when it amounted to $400, the work was taken up by the citizens, and committees appointed and an appeal issued for funds. The Argus very commendably started a citizens fund, and through persistent work has pushed the matter until now all but about $150 of the cost, $800, is raised. We urge our readers to send to the Argus or to us any amount they feel able to pay toward this fund and let the necessary means be placed immediately in the committee's hands.

Harper's Bazar of April 10 will contain the second of Mrs. Margaret Welch's papers on "Club Women and Club Work." Another feature of particular interest will be an article on "The Virginia Home Life of today," by Katherine Pyle.

Vernon Argus: At a meeting of the school board on Saturday evening, the present teachers (with the exception of Miss Dyer, resigned) were tendered their respective positions for the coming school year. Miss Effie Goss was the successful applicant for the position made vacant by the resignation of Miss Dyer. Miss Goss has been a very successful teacher in the schools of this township for the past five years and holds a second grade certificate.

Bancroft Commercial: Last Monday was E. Chalker's 55th birthday and in honor of the occasion a party of neighbors and friends gathered at his home laden with everything good in the culinary line, and a very pleasant evening was spent with music and games. The host was presented with an elegant chair, which gift he thoroughly appreciated.

Burton Farmers' Club.

April first is said to be "all fools day," but the large company of people are not fools, by any means, who gathered on that day, at the pleasant "Villa Rose," and partook of the bountiful hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rose.

"The proof of the pudding lies in the eating," and the proof that the Burton Farmers' Club is not lacking in good sense, is shown in their choosing such lovely homes in which to have their monthly meetings. The day was beautiful and the roads in so much better condition than they had been that everybody was happy.

After the usual exercises, the questions were taken up, some of which called forth quite a discussion. One was, "Is the world getting better or worse?" Mrs. Randall read a paper, showing that it is growing worse, as there were so many crimes committed now that were never even thought of in the good old days of yore. Some of the gentlemen took exception to this, and Mr. M. Woodin offered us to the office of Judge Smith to look over the record of crimes which have been committed in the past. Mr. Benson, one of the visitors, was also of the decided opinion that the world was growing better, instead of worse.

"Do farmers' wives, as a rule, live up to their privileges," was the ladies' topic for the day. Mrs. Hibbard thought what was a privilege for some would not be for others, but said she would rather hear the others on the subject. Mrs. Randall read a very good paper telling the many privileges farmers wives enjoy now. The conclusion drawn was that farmers wives, as a rule, were quite apt to take their privileges and live up to them, if they wanted to.

The subject for the gentlemen was "Shall the state do away with contract labor at the State prisons." It was the general opinion that prisoners should be made to earn their living. If they would commit crimes which send them to prison, then make them earn their own living. So the state need not be taxed for this. R. C. Shepard read a paper, showing how it had been in New York since the state had done away with the prison contract system. The prisoners were nearly frantic, and begged and pleaded to have work of some kind given them, and the tax for the support of these criminals was a grievous burden to the people of the state.

The next subject—"Is it for the interest of the farmers of Michigan to encourage and support the sugar beet industry?" Mr. Place read a paper on this topic, showing the amount of sugar made in several factories in different parts of the country. He believes in practicing the manufacture of this sugar. He believes in protection, even in small things, thinks a man should protect his home, his family, his wife, and if a young man is with his best girl, he should protect her. Of course from this talk of the best girl, the speakers naturally drifted back to that other sweet made from beets. Some one said this beet sugar was made hundreds of years ago. Another one said, "The Yankees have been asleep, it is time they should awake and take a hand in this business." Mr. Hibbard thinks some one is going to get badly fooled with sugar beet raising. He feels content to let some other county try the experiment first.

On the State subject, the "Mortgage tax law," it was the general opinion that mortgages should be taxed, but in such a way that the holder of the mortgage should pay it, not the one who had to give it. There was a good deal of interest manifested in this topic.

Miss Myrtle Bradley, a handsome black-eyed little tot of seven summers, recited in a very pleasing manner, "Kitty with pias in her toes."

Besides the club members, who were nearly all present, Mrs. Rose had invited in several families, and a lot of young people, who always have such a good time at this place.

Subject for the ladies at next meeting, is "Homekeeping and Housekeeping." That for the gentlemen, "Is it possible to curtail production in this country in any line of farming, and thereby raise the price of farm products?"

Club adjourned to meet with Mr. and Miss Guilford, the first Thursday in May. H. M. Cor. Sec., pro tem.

Mrs. Emma Castree, mother of J. B. B. Castree, of Castree & Shaw, died at her son's home on Howell street, Tuesday. Mrs. Castree was 85 years of age and had been confined to the house for more than a year. The funeral was held yesterday at the home, Rev. E. W. Hunt officiating. Mrs. Castree leaves three children, J. B. B. Castree, of this city, and a son in England and a daughter in Australia. She was a finely educated woman and was for many years a social and literary leader.

Mrs. John Shields died Thursday night of last week of pneumonia and her mother, Mrs. James Harvey, died Sunday morning, both at the home of Mrs. Daniel Murphy on River street. A double funeral was held from St. Paul's Catholic church Tuesday morning Rev. Fr. Slane officiating. Thomas Harvey, of Lansing, Mrs. D. Burns, of Marine City, Mrs. A. Stoenberg, of Durand, and Mrs. J. Parks, of St. Johns, attended the funeral. Mr. Shields, who was in Denver, Colo., was telegraphed for and arrived Monday. The sudden death of Mrs. Shields makes a saddened home. She left four children who are at the home of Mrs. Shields' sister, Mrs. Murphy. All have the sympathy of the community in their affliction.

The clothing store of M. B. Netorg and the hardware store of L. B. Downie, at Elsie, were broken into by burglars Friday night and about $75 worth of goods taken from Netorg's and about $30 worth taken at Downie's. There is no clue to the thieves, but local talent is strongly suspected.

The Fenton Courier is responsible for the following: Rodney Heddon lives on a farm in Byron, the farm adjoining the Argentine and Byron line. About nine years ago his father was shot and killed, the murderer serving his term in prison at the present time. One night last winter while there was snow on the ground a light was seen moving down the lane towards one of the barns and Mr. Heddon was informed and made search, but no trace of the light or of footprints could be seen. Since then the light has been seen at night by the family and neighbors and the alleged manifestations have stirred up much excitement, as almost all those who have seen the light believe that it is caused by the old man's ghost.

Chesaning Argus: The hardwood lumber cut at Church's mill two years ago for the Owosso Manufacturing Co. was loaded and shipped to Owosso this week—about twelve cars.

Lainburg News: To cite an instance that farming does pay even in these times, we publish a statement made to the News. Our informant said that a few days ago an acquaintance of his marketed a load of hogs in this village for which he received $95, and with that paid the last payment and interest due on his 80 acre farm, which he bought five years ago, going in debt $1,000, contracting to pay $200 per year and the interest. He has, by hard work and right management, fulfilled the contract and is today the owner of a good 80 acre farm unencumbered.

The Bennington correspondent of the Lansingburg News, writes: Nelson Cook, residing near Pittsburg, died March 29, of paralysis. He was in his 91st year. Mr. Cook suffered a similar stroke, from which he rallied to fairly good health for so old a gentleman. About ten days ago he suffered another stroke which soon resulted in death. His wife passed away about seven years ago. Mr. Cook has lived on the farm where he passed away, a half a century and we have lived nearly 45 years in his neighborhood and don't think he had an enemy in the world. He seemed kind and obliging at all times and we think that all who came for a favor never went away empty handed. We can say of Mr. Cook that he was a kind neighbor, a good citizen, a kind and indulgent father, and a sincere Christian, thus he has gone to his reward.

PERFECT HEALTH.

HOW IT MAY BE OBTAINED BY ALL.

An Interesting Bit of History as Told by a Traveling Man, Followed by Affidavits of Two Prominent People.

From the World, Cleveland, Ohio.

After an extended trip lasting several months and embracing many points of interest throughout the West and South, Mr. George Lockhart, of Hudson, Ohio, returned home a few days ago. He is bright and genial as ever and looks as if his long holiday had thoroughly agreed with him.

Mr. Lockhart's business during his travels took him frequently to Hot Springs and other health resorts. He does not appear to have been very favorably impressed with the peculiarities of life at such places, nor with the benefits received by the patients. "Men go there to get cured of disease," says he. "They take one hot bath in the morning and spend the rest of the day generally in drinking, gambling and general dissipation. How they can expect to recover under such treatment passes my comprehension. But they are, as a rule, what the world calls good fellows, free with their money and bent on enjoying themselves."

"With one man, however, whom I met at such a place I formed what I hope will prove a permanent friendship. I am indebted to him for benefits which have left on my mind a feeling of the strongest gratitude. I was, as you know, not at all well. A slight lameness in my right leg, contracted about a year ago, had gradually become worse until I was compelled to go around on crutches all the time. Then my general health failed, and in the latter part of the summer I had about concluded to come home to die. Such a state of affairs, as you will easily understand was anything but comfortable. I was, in fact, neither more nor less than a helpless invalid, a nuisance to myself and everybody around me. It was at this juncture that one day on the train I fell into conversation with the man I mention. He recommended me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I did so. You see the result."

And Mr. Lockhart expanded his broad chest and smiled. "Look here," he continued, as he took off his hat and holding it on a level with his head, kicked it easily with the foot that used to be lame. No better picture of perfect health and abounding animal spirits could be wished for than this one-time invalid. "My future movements are uncertain," said Mr. Lockhart at parting. "I will remain in Hudson for some time, but before the summer is over I expect to make a visit to Europe."

A Lumberman's Experience.

From the Breeze, Bellaire, Mich.

"Have Pink Pills done me any good? What, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People? Indeed, I should think they have. My family have every reason to feel grateful to Dr. Williams for his wonderful medicine," said James F. Rose, a gentleman sixty-three years of age, and one of the oldest settlers of Helena Township, in Antrim County, Michigan.

"I was working with some large logging wheels lumbering, some eighteen years ago, and was seriously injured. I was thrown a long distance striking on some logs and I broke my left hip, fractured three ribs, and injured my left shoulder. I was unconscious twenty-four hours, and it was a long time before I could walk at all. Finally I got so I could hobble around a little, but always suffered great pain while moving about. I could sit in a chair quite comfortably but could only get up after great difficulty and by helping myself with my hands or with other assistance."

"I had consulted physicians and tried a good many remedies but with no satisfactory results."

"We read of the Marshall case, of Hamilton, Ontario, a wonderful cure attributed to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I sent for a box of them, and was helped at once, and by the time I had taken one box I could get up out of the chair as spry as any one, and could run, and do any kind of work I ever could."

"Since taking Pink Pills I have been able to work at such work as sawing wood—rolling logs, in fact, I have no occasion to favor myself on account of my injury. Why, last summer I dug a ditch eighty rods long and two feet deep. I attribute my freedom from pains entirely to Pink Pills. It is a wonderful medicine. I think my wife's cure from creeping paralysis was even greater than mine."

Mr. Rose desired to put the above in the form of an affidavit, and did so as follows: STATE OF MICHIGAN, ss. COUNTY OF ANTRIM, ss. James F. Rose, being duly sworn on his oath says that the foregoing statement is true. JAMES F. ROSE.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 29th day of February, 1896.

DR. WILLIAMS' MEDICINE COMPANY, Schenectady, N. Y.

Gentlemen—I feel that I should write you of the benefit I have received from your Pink Pills for Pale People. I have been a great sufferer, and for nearly twenty years cannot truly say I have seen a well day until after I used Pink Pills. I was an invalid for fourteen years, seven of which I was almost helpless, and had to be carried when moved from place to place. I was troubled with serious stomach troubles, and was constantly growing worse. My feet became paralyzed, then my ankles and afterwards my knees became paralyzed. We became convinced that creeping paralysis had fastened itself upon me, and my death was thought to be a matter of only a short time. My husband had procured some Pink Pills, and as they were helping him greatly I tried them, and can truly say of them that they are an extraordinary medicine. I have experienced relief beyond my hopes, and almost. My paralysis is a thing of the past, and though I am a woman of sixty-three years, I now do all my housework, and am enjoying good health. Thanks to Dr. Williams and his medicines. [Signed.] MARGARET ROSE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, ss. COUNTY OF ANTRIM, ss. Margaret Rose, being duly sworn, deposes and says that the foregoing statement by her subscribed is true.

C. E. DENSMORE, Notary Public.
